Where Is The Most Beautiful Place To Stay In Sicily?

Classic Sicily

Overview

Sicily is a triangular island that sits right at the bottom of the boot-shaped country called Italy and has been a regular contender and travel award winner. The island may be small, but it garnered immense fame worldwide due to its legendary Mount Etna. During your trips to Sicily with the best Sicily travel deals, it is crucial to choose your staying place as this tiny Italian island has so many sites and beautiful experiences to offer.

The regional capital of Sicily- Palermo

Palermo is considered the best place to stay during your trips to Sicily. This capital city is full of quintessential and stunning architectural sites at every corner, but it is dusty and chaotic at the same time. The classic masterpiece of the city is the 12th-century cathedral which is the true definition of majestic architectural work.

Reason to stay in Palermo: If you plan to visit significant sites all within the city, this is the place to stay in Sicily. While taking advantage of fantastic shopping experiences, you can also visit the main sites of Palermo. This city serves as an excellent base for one-day trips to Cefalu, Erice, Segesta, and Agrigento.

Sicily's second-largest city- Catania

On the Ionian coast of the eastern side of Sicily, the Catania city is located in the shadows of the legendary Mount Etna. The city is often described as a dull and grey city that got rebuilt with lava.

Reason to stay in Catania: During your trips to Sicily in your Sicily travel deals, Catania is among the most considered places to stay. It serves as the ideal base for your trip to the southern and eastern coast and offers an endless list of trip options ensuring your days on the island never get dull.

The Scenic hilltop town – Taormina

Overlooking the open ocean, the Taormina town is perfectly perched upon the hilltop. It serves as a perfect coastal break with stunning views to its visitors, along with lots of hiking opportunities in its surrounding hills. The history of this scenic town dates back to the 4th century and brings beauty to its visitors along with its important historical monuments.

Reason to stay in Taormina- in your Sicily travel deals, this scenic town qualifies among the best place to stay with its two nearby beaches and hilltop views. The rocky cliffs of Taormina are dotted with beaches, and with the help of a cable car system, you can get going there efficiently. The town also has grottos carved out directly at the bottom of the rocky cliffs present at the site.

During your private tour of Sicily, you will experience a very welcoming and friendly atmosphere along with delicious cuisines while enjoying amazing beaches and majestic architectural views. The city is one of the most popular travel destinations and offers its visitors great culture, history, and entertainment. In your Sicily travel deals, you will get to travel one of the biggest islands of Italy, and the unique facet of the island is that each part of the island has its vibe that will make your travel experience more memorable.
